A dramatic scene in the case of Adam Sauter, who was recently brought from Cleveland, Ohio, for having jumped his bail, occurred in the City Court room yesterday. Sauter, who had been found guilty of having threatened to shoot Frieda Hoefer, of Nepera Park, was led into court for sentence. The young woman was present, with her mother and brother. On seeing Sauter she became hysterical and screamed loudly. She was taken into an anteroom, where her condition became serious. After considerable delay a physician was sent for and Miss Hoefer was taken home in a carriage in an extremely nervous state, after having caused an hour of excitement in the court building. In the mean time Sauter had been sentenced by Judge Kellogg to four months in the Kings County Penitentiary.

When the Common Council members hold their special meeting to-morrow night they will be special meeting to-morrow night they will be called upon to take action in the fight between the Board of Fire Commissioners and the volugiter firemen, relative to allowing the paid men to parade at the State convention.

At a meeting of the Board of Health on Tuesday evening a communication was received from Mayor Sutherland stating that he had no constitutional right to exclude pediers from Getty Square, which they are in the habit of using every Saturday night for market purposes. A petition signed by twenty prominent citizens was recently received by the Health Board protesting against the peddiling nuisance, and this was sent to the Mayor, who added, in his communication, that if a nuisance exists on account of such peddiling it is the feature of the Health Board to see that is it stopped. At a special meeting of the Common Council held on Monday night Mayor Dillon vetoed the resolution recently adopted to build a $90,000 boulevard in North-st. The Mayor thinks the boulevard will be North-st. The Mayor thinks the boulevard will be too much in the interest of the trolley company and not enough to the advantage of the people of the city to warrant the expenditure of so much money. A resolution ordering some minor improvements in Hudson Fark was also disapproved by the Mayor. The greater part of the evening was devoted to the consideration of the report of the Street Committee. The committee has practically decided upon the improvement of thirty miles of streets. The following streets are to be paved, the material, whether paving brick, or block, or sheet material, to be designated by the property owners: Huguenot, from its intersection with Main to Rose; Huguenot, from its intersection with Huguenot to Echoave. North, from Huguenot to the terminus of the Union Railway on Lather's Hill. Other less important streets which are curbed and guttered will be macadamized. The report was adopted. The Aldermen also voted to purchase a steam roller for $2.625. Committees were appointed to call upon the officers of the New-York. New-Haven and Hartford and the Union railways. The former company will be asked to build its extensions in Wityah and Centre aves.

Not in several years has the tide been so high at this time of the year as it is now in the local harbors. The high seas have forced hundreds of pleasure yachts to seek refuge in Echo Bay, and some of the smaller boats which were not secured by double anchors have been driven upon the beach. Pleasure parties have found the weather so rax that they have dispersed and gone to their homes. too much in the interest of the trolley company

C. F. Barstow and his family, who some months ago moved to Lincoln, Neb., have returned to their home in Peekskill, being displeased with the West. Mr. Barstow, who is an ardent Republican, said there was too much Bryan in Nebraska for him.

there was too much Bryan in Nebraska for him.

The funeral of William J. Callan was held yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 656 Central-ave. The services at the house and at the grave were in charge of Harmony Lodge No. 138, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member. Mr. Callan was born in 1842. He had lived here many years, and died from a cancer, after a long filmess. He is survived by a wife and two grown children.

The body of Mrs. Mary Corbett, forty-three years old, was found on the tracks of the New-York Central Railroad before daylight yesterday morning by Andrew McLoughlin, gateman. The body was mangled and the woman had been in all probability killed instantly. It was learned that she had been struck by the morning milk train, about 4 a. m. It was said that the woman committed suicide, although, of course, the facts will never be known. Her husband, Daniel Corbett, was away all night, and his wife had been looking for him and was discouraged and in despair. He was intoxicated night before last, and did not come home until early yesterday morning. They had four children.

chases. He had a good appearance, and bought goods amounting to $27. When he was through he handed Mr. Fowler a check for $2.40, drawn on the Farmers' Bank, Hudson. It was made payable to C. A. Perkins and signed Charles Rogers.

The check was properly indorsed, and the revenue stamp was printed in the check. It looked genuine, and as it was a good sale Mr. Fowler cashed the check and gave the man $5.40 in change. He went out and said he would return for the goods in the afternoon. He gave his name as C. A. Tremper. He had been gone only a short while when Mr. Fowler suspected the check was a forgery and sent a policeman after Tremper. He, however, had left town. Then he telephoned to Hudson, and found his suspicions were true. The police sent out a general alarm, and the cashier of the bank came to Tarrytown. It is reported last night that the man also passed a large number of forged checks in Mount Vernon.

W. F. Chadeayne, of North Tarrytown, is at his home, in De Peyster-st., in a critical condition, Mr. Chadeayne owns one of the largest groceries in that village. Last night he went to the rear of the store, where the feed is stored. It was dark, and he did not see that the trapdor was open. He stepped forward and fell head set into the hole. He struck on his head on the pavement about twelve feet below, and lay there unconscious and bleeding. It was some minutes before he was missed, and one of the employes went in search of him and found him lying where he fell. He was taken to his home and is still unconscious. Two doctors were summoned, and last night they had little hope for his recovery. Mr. Chadeayne is married and has three children. He is a member of the Board of Education.

The matter has en holding back for fourteen years since New-York began to use Byram Lake, the source of the river, as a water supply. This diminished the flow river, as a water supply. This diminished the flow of the stream, and at the time the city paid to mill owners about half a million dollars as restitution. The payments now being made are to the owners of land abutting on the river. The rate is 60 cents a front foot, and on this basis about fifty thousand dollars is to be paid out. There are about eight miles of river, making sixteen miles of frontage. As each claim is paid it is carefully verified, and the proofs of ownership are examined and held. NEARLY NINETY BETAIN CARDS IN THE QUALIFYING ROUND-HARRY HOL

Southampton, N. Y., July 25 (Special).-The gre midsummer golf contests, scarcely overshadowe indeed, by the amateur championship, the annu Club, began yesterday morning with a field con taining the big number of 114 contestants, of whor nearly ninety retained cards in the qualifyin round. That this number would have been muc larger had the weather been pleasant is assure for several men who were on the grounds refusrounds were being played Monday leaden cloud gathered, and the weather sharps predicted rai and plenty of it before morning. The prediction was amply fulfilled, for when the first arrivals in the morning cast an eye over the course they four pools of water every hundred yards or so, rangir

The luck of the draw had brought Harry Hollin jr., and Roderick Terry, jr., together, and pushir each other as they would, one or the other was expected to be low man yesterday, and each we one of the strongest four candidates for the chihonors, the others being Walter J. It bounded upon the course, how ever, and by good play Hollins succeeded in holin out in 6, Terry meantime had lost two strokes in the roa and the hole cost him five. From then on, how-ever, they played brilliantly, finishing the first eighteen holes Terry 79 and Hollins 80, against 82 and 83 respectively last year. Travis, however, was the bright particular star of the morning, going out in 40 and home in 38. He had two sixes only on his cards, these being caused by muddy lies after a good drive, costing him a stroke at each. A remarkable shot was made by C. B. Cory, of the TARRYTOWN.

As has been predicted, Harry Hollins duplicated his "win" of 1898 by leading the field home, and winning the gold medal for the best gross score. His rounds, 80-90, were remarkable examples of His rounds, 80-90, were remarkable examples of steady, consistent gelf, and, although Travis led him by 2 strokes in the morning, the Oakland man was 3 to the bad at the end of the day. Roderick Terry, fr., who at the amateur championship played exceedingly well, being put out by no less a golfer than Champion Harriman, started brilliantly in the morning, being the second lowest, but he had two bad holes in the afternoon, and 3 was the best he could do. The first of these was at the seventh hole, when he topped his drive into the road and topped his second and sclaffed the third. His 7 at the fifteenth was caused by bad lies. U. A. Murdock, fr., made the best 3 hole score recorded, coming home in the afternoon in 37.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE CUPS. The best sixteen scores qualify for the President's Cup, offered by Samuel Parrish; the next eight for the Peconic Cup and the third eight for the Consolation Cup, the latter being given by the club. The arrangements are in the hands of the Executive Committee, Henry G. Trevor, J. Bowers Lee, R. H. Robertson, George C. Clark and Samuel L. Parrish, ex officio. To-day's play will be confined to the first and second match play rounds of eighteen holes each for the three cups.

TENNIS.

A DRIZZLING RAIN ON THE LONGWOOD COURTS STOPPED THE PROGRESS OF THE EASTERN CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT.

Boston, July 25 (Special).-This was an off day in the Eastern Championship Lawn Tennis meet-ing at the Longwood Cricket Club here. It rained r drizzled practically all day, and only late in the afternoon did it let up enough to make it possible to play off a few of the less important matches between the showers. Even then the courts were o wet and the balls so heavy that good tennis was practically impossible, and most of the games were won on the errors of opponents.

The only match of any importance to be finished was that between Ward and Hawes, and the Harwas that between vard man surprised every one by the easy way in which he disposed of Hawes, who showed considerable promise at one time last season. This victory gives Ward a place in the third round, where he will probably have to play George Wrenn, the ex-champion's younger brother, on Thursday for a place in the semi-finals. To-day's rain has set the tournament back badly, and as the programme was already long it is con-sidered doubtful if the last matches can be completed this week, and the finals will probably have to be held over till next Monday, even if the reather remains clear the rest of the week.

The Eastern championship doubles have been drawn, with an entry list of nineteen crack teams, while the handicap was also drawn to-day, with no less than forty players. Play in both of these vents will begin to-morrow, while the scratch singles will also be pushed as fast as the matches can be run off. In this contest the favorites are Larned and Davis. Larned is expected to meet Beals Wright, one of the most promising of the younger experts in the country, in the semi-final Wrenn for his antagonist in the other semi-final unless Davidson, the Southern champion, should upset calculations to-morrow by beatting Wrenn in the second round.

The entry for the championship doubles to select a team to represent the Eastern States at Newport in the final championship series is better in both the quantity and quality of the players than any similar tournament held in many years. Among the nineteen teams are two, Campbell and Huntington, and Wrenn and Chace, who have held the National championship in years gone by, and no less than four National champions in singles, Whitman, Wrenn, Hovey and Campbell. The draw for this struggle resulted as follows:

Preliminary round—Ralph McKittrick and S. P. Ware against W. E. Putnam, it., and E. N. Wrightington; F. H. Hovey and F. W. Whislow against B. F. Merrill and A. B. Hitchcock, W. C. Grant and A. C. McMaster against Alfred Codman and E. R. Marvin.

First round—E. A. Stroud and J. S. Morris against M. D. Whitman and G. L. Wrenn, Jr.; J. B. Read and A. S. Pier against K. Horton and P. E. Presbrey; D. F. Davis and Holcomb Ward against R. D. Little and A. P. Hawes; W. J. Clothier and J. R. Carpenter against the winners of the last preliminary match; J. P. Paret and J. C. Davidson against C. R. Budlong and R. P. Huntington; R. C. Seaver and A. F. Fuller against W. A. Larned and E. P. Larned; R. D. Wrenn and M. G. Chace against C. R. Budlong and B. C. Wright.

The scores of to-day's games follow:

M. A. Larned and E. P. Larned, R. D. M. G. Chace against C. R. Budlong Wright. The scores of to-day's games follow:

Championship singles (preliminary round)—Kenneth Horion beat W. B. Putnam, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3; Julian Codman beat W. Dexter, 2-6, 6-1, 6-8, 3-6, 9-7. First round-E R. Marvin beat P. B. Presbrey, 6-2, 6-6 (unfinished).

Second round-Holcomb Ward beat A. P. Hawes, 6-0, 6-6, 8-6. BOXING.
